This form is in addition to an index card sized-quick form-application and MUST be submitted within 1 week of completing the quick form and initial payment.
An applicant will not be considered unless this form is completed and returned. For your convenience, please use the provided self-addressed envelope.

Note: This form and the information submitted on it will be kept confidential from the directors and general membership and be used to perform a limited background check by the Membership Committee (which will consist of two officers with at least one being the President and/or the Vice President).

Upon receipt/review of this completed form and applicant approval given by the Membership Committee, the name of the prospective applicant will be read/presented at the next weekly meeting (every Thursday night) with the quick form only, being posted for one (1) week to allow for membership comment. After being posted for one (1) week, the applicant will be voted on by the directors and attending membership during the next weekly meeting. Upon vote approval, the new member will then receive a membership card and vehicle sticker(s) via the postal service.

If "non-approval" is decided by the Membership Committee, the application process will go no further and the applicant will be refunded his/ her application fee.
 If "non-approval" is decided by director/ membership vote, the applicant will be refunded his/her application fee and not be able to reapply for one calendar year.

The Gardiner Sportsmen's Club grounds and facilities are for member/member-family/member-guest use only. While this form and membership process is one means for the Gardiner Sportsmen's Club to help provide a safe environment for its members and families, use of the grounds and its facilities are at your own risk. Thank you.
